Revised Sunshine Policy 01/10/1999

Sunshine Committee will be responsible for acknowledging losses, illnesses or births of loved ones of families of SBS students, teachers and staff as per policy.

The Following revisions to the Sunshine Guideline Policy were voted on and adopted at the January 5, 1999 SPTG Meeting

Student

Acknowledgment of Death	Donation
Student	$100.00
Parent	$100.00
Sibling	$50.00
Grandparent	Card

Faculty Member

Acknowledgment of Death	Donation
Faculty Member	$100.00
Spouse	$100.00
Child	$50.00

The donation can be made directly to the family or to an organization specified by the family. In the event of a student's or faculty member's death, the donation could be put toward the cost of a memorial, if so desired. Additional money, solicited for a memorial can be voted on by the membership on an as needed basis.

Acknowledgment of Illness

In the event of a serious illness to a student or faculty member, we will send flowers, balloons, a bear bouquet or a fruit basket at an approximant cost of $30.00 and not to exceed $50.00. Follow up notes and cards may also be sent. The president must authorize any expenses over the amount stated above.

General Comments

When appropriate, a card will be sent for births, deaths, weddings, etc... expressing good wishes on behalf of the SPTG, subject to discretion, but not solely on the knowledge of the
